Call to Order

- Jacqueline Kurth, Co-Chairperson, called the Community Outreach and Training Work Group meeting to order at 1:01 pm with nine (9) members and five (5) staff/guests present.

Welcome/Introductions

- Tracy Cruickshank, Co-Chairperson, welcomed everyone and asked them to introduce themselves and the agency they represent.

Approval of Minutes

- Minutes for the meeting held August 13th, 2019, were reviewed. Revisions were suggested and recorded. Leah Landrum-Taylor made a motion to approve the minutes with revisions. The motion was seconded by Larry Tracey. Motion passed with no dissenting votes.

Arizona Substance Abuse Prevention Hub Website Feedback and Next Steps

- Jacqueline Kurth Co-Chair, introduced the first agenda item and invited Deb Stoks, Arizona National Guard to provide the latest updates of the Arizona Substance Abuse Prevention Hub Website.
- Sergeant Stoks reviewed the recent changes with the workgroup members. This included the highlights of National Guard collaboration across the state with pictures of the coalition trainings. A coalition section was added which highlights regional information and social media accounts. She continued to highlight the additional materials including specific military drug prevention resources. The website will continue to be updated as more feedback is provided.
- Jacqueline Kurth, Co-Chair thanked the Arizona National Guard for their continued hard work and support of this website and highlighted the website feedback survey.
- Sergeant Stoks reported eleven surveys have been completed and individuals continue to provide feedback. She highlighted one surveys feedback related to Opioids. The individual felt it was necessary to include resources related to all medication abuse including Triple C, benzodiazepines, stimulants and sleep aids. Sergeant Stoks proposed should the opioid tab be updated to include prescription drugs.
- Gabrielle Richard asked if the tab should be broader and include all medications. Larry Tracey followed up with should the word Opioid still be included and suggested the tab be changed to Opioids and other medications. The workgroup discussed this further and felt the suggestion was important.
- Leah Landrum-Taylor asked to review the vaping resources on the site and asked if something could be added for parents to detect children vaping. Sergeant Stoks reviewed vaping resources and reported she continues to add more as new information is released.
- Sergeant Stoks proposed to the workgroup members, what they feel are important next steps for the website and their suggestions for moving forward.
- Jacqueline Kurth Co-Chair, suggested the website be shared with government partners and regional coalitions. Once the link is sent everyone would be encouraged to place the link on their agency website. Larry Tracey discussed how each coalition could advertise the site. Tracy Cruickshank Co-Chair further suggested the workgroup members determine uniform language to include with the website link.
- Jacqueline Kurth Co-Chair stated the Governor's Office of Youth, Faith and Family (GOYFF) leadership team will help determine next steps for the prevention hub because ASAP is currently in transition. Leah Landrum-Taylor asked if it is possible for ASAP members to review the prevention hub instead of waiting for the next commission meeting.
- Jacqueline Kurth Co-Chair stated it will be reported back to GOYFF leadership that workgroup members feel the website is ready for public use and would like guidance on next steps for dissemination.

2019 HIDTA Drug Threat Assessment

- Jacqueline Kurth Co-Chair, thanked Sergeant Stoks for her team's hard work on the prevention hub and introduced the second agenda item, 2019 HIDTA Drug Threat Assessment with work group member Brett Klein, High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area.
- Brett Klein provided background information about the threat assessment. The assessment is completed every year. HITDA complies law enforcement feedback and reports on what they are seeing across the state of Arizona. Mr. Klein reported the top five drug threats across the state are meth, heroin, synthetic/fentanyl, marijuana, and cocaine. These again are based on drug seizures, law enforcement interviews and reports. Mr. Klein reviewed the trends with each substance and reviewed seizure photos.
- Jacqueline Kurth Co-Chair thanked Mr. Klein for his presentation and workgroups members discussed how would use the information in their work throughout the community.

Trauma Informed Substance Use Prevention Online Modules

- Jacqueline Kurth Co-Chair introduced Angie Geren of the Arizona ACE Consortium to present updates of the Trauma Informed Substance Use Prevention Online Modules.
- Angie Geren reviewed the seven different modules of the course and how they will be formatted for individual learning in an online. The modules will be released in November and will be linked with the Arizona State University knowledge assessments.

- Jacqueline Kurth Co-Chair asked workgroup if there questions or any thoughts on adding the modules link to the Arizona Substance Abuse Prevention Hub Website. Larry Tracey asked for clarification on content and how these modules are different from the coalition training modules. Angie Geren further explained this will work in tandem with the in-person coalition training modules.
- Tracy Cruickshank, Co-Chairperson stated a link to the Trauma Informed Substance Use Prevention Online Modules would be great to include on the Arizona Substance Abuse Prevention Hub website.
- Jacqueline Kurth, Co-Chair thanked Angie Geren for updates and presentation. Ms. Kurth then asked for a motion to include the Trauma Informed Substance Use Prevention Online Modules to the Arizona Substance Abuse Prevention Hub Website.
- Laci Ampadu made a motion to add the Trauma Informed Substance Use Prevention Online Modules to the Arizona Substance Abuse Prevention Hub Website. Leah Landrum-Taylor seconded the motion. The motion passed.
